

PRESS RELEASE

Hagit Glickman Speaks to Professional Women's Healthcare Alliance (PWHHA)

San Francisco, CA- October 20, 2006 – Hagit Glickman, Ph.D., CEO, Executive Impact Group www.execimpactgroup.com spoke before the Professional Women's Healthcare Alliance on "Leadership Styles that Work".

Speaking to a group of professional healthcare executives at the Palo Alto offices of Morrison & Foerster, LLP www.mofo.com, Dr. Glickman provided an overview of the various leadership types in the workplace and those that have been effective in producing successful results for individuals and companies.

"Dr. Glickman's speech was an informative, enthusiastic, and well attended event! The feedback that we received was that the group was thrilled" according to Christine L. Cunningham, President, PWHHA and Vice President, Marketing & Business Development, Aragon Surgical, Inc.

About EiG

Executive Impact group www.execimpactgroup.com based in San Francisco, California is an executive advisory firm that serves healthcare, biotech and technology companies world-wide. Our services include strategy, change mentoring, business transformation and CEO coaching.

About PWHHA

The Professional Women's Healthcare Alliance is dedicated to providing knowledge, insight and opportunity to enable women in the healthcare industry to realize their full leadership potential and professional aspirations.